
The client
The client initiates the proceedings
Submits a submission to the notary
The notary
Receives the submission
Have the rights been verified?
No
Verifies the submitter's rights
Yes
With deficiencies
To refuse
To accept or refuse?
Does the client challenge before a court?
Yes, he/ she does
No, he/ she does not
Termination (refusal)
Legal assistance for rectifying the deficiencies
Rectified submission
To accept
Accepts correct submission
Informs the participants in the inheritance matter
Publishes an announcement in the official gazette Latvijas Vēstnesis
Are there objections?
Yes, there are
No, there are not
Scenario 1: Submission together with the commencement of an inheritance matter. The certificate is issued as soon as the Latvian inheritance certificate is available.
Scenario 2. Submission after the Latvian inheritance certificate has been issued. The certificate is issued after verification and declaration.
Which scenario?
Issues the E.S. (European Succession) Certificate after issuing the Latvian inheritance certificate
Issues the E.S. (European Succession) Certificate after verification and declaration
The client receives the E.S. Certificate (valid for 6 months)
The court
The court examines the objections
Termination (outcome of objections)
The court examines the notary's refusal
Termination (the court's decision)
Related foreign institutions
Turns to foreign EU institutions
Proceedings terminated